Old Business:

Club Jackets:

Bill & Loyd explained their inquiry into the overseas supplier and why it would be better to go with a local supplier, Cost were more for the art work, shipping to Canada, and not knowing who will be doing the work. After membership discussion, members opted to go with local supplier.

Bill brought in a sample that he had done by J&J, this one would be about $70.00 in either men's or Ladies.

Bill passed the jacket around for members to look at.

Ken Black showed members one that he had done by J&J

Mega Screens would be about $120.00 for set up, jackets would run about $150.00 with rear crest and an extra $20.00 for the small front crest.

Norm suggested that the club should buy extra crests for any new members coming in that may want to have jackets made.

Bill talked about crest options, sew-on patches or embroidered.

James made up a sheet that was passed around for members that were interested in getting jackets to fill out for jacket size and crest locations, either back, front or both.

Bill will get final prices and layout for next meeting.
